

IP 16 input alarm collector GGM IPAA16I

This IP alarm collector is integrated into the IP GIGAMEDIA sound system solution. This allows it to detect contacts coming from external equipment in order to automatically trigger warning alarms or diffuse warning messages. They are integrated into the IP sound system software. It is possible to acknowledge the alarms either via the software or by pressing the button on the product's front face.

Article features

- Power Consumption :